Wilkerson Meal Train

Please join us in supporting the Wilkerson family.

Jessica (mom) has always been there for absolutely everyone but now their young daughter Maddy who has a heart condition, has had several health related setbacks. After an ER visit and hospital admission they will be needing to travel to Seattle Children's Hospital for several appointments and it is unclear how much insurance will cover. Staying at the Ronald McDonald house is only an option if admitted, not for appointments. I'm sure we can all imagine the expense of travel with the skyrocketing cost of gas as well as the sheer travel exhaustion.

Dad & mom will lose work hours/days that their family relies upon. In the midst of all this they have several family members, one undergoing chemo that Jessica has also committed to supporting in their multi-generational household.

Anything gifted would be greatly appreciated whether it's delivering a meal, gas, restaurant or grocery gift cards.
